

WE NOMINATE

The 190 Princetonians who this Sunday (February 8) will devote nearly 1,000 man-hours to a little-publicized community effort, the first Sustaining Membership Campaign of the Boy Scouts of America. Grateful to the Princeton Community Chest for its continued and increasing support, and moving ahead with the approval of Chest Officers, local Scouting authorities have found that emergency measures are in order if they are to meet the most severe challenge Scouting has yet faced in the Princeton Area—the problem of providing Scouting opportunities for the scores of Princeton youngsters for whom there is no room in existing Packs and Troops.

As the campaign volunteers fan out Sunday, they will not be attempting a house-to-house canvass of the Borough, Township and environs but will be approaching some 1,500 individuals whose lives have been touched directly or indirectly by Scouting. They will be seeking a $3,000 goal, all of which is earmarked for use here in the Stony Brook District, and will be concerned with acquainting a cross-section of the community with a program dedicated to the ideal of training future citizens "to stand on their own two feet."

The dollar-and-cents angle is all-important, particularly in a period of unprecedented expansion. There is also the paramount question of adult interest and understanding, for it takes one adult for every three boys enrolled in the Scouts. Some work hand-in-hand with the boys as Den Mothers and Den Fathers; others are farther in the background as members of advisory committees and sponsoring organizations. For Sunday's "dawn to dusk" undertaking 75 "regular volunteers", including Scoutmasters who give the equivalent of 18 full days a year to Scouting, have been bolstered by part-time missionaries.

In 1953, Scouting's 43d year, it is reasonable to hope that the number of Scout units in the Princeton vicinity (seven Scout Troops, four Cub Packs and an Explorers' Post) can be increased by a third. Throughout the country, for instance, the Cubs (ages 8-11) outnumber the Boy Scouts, 990,000 to 880,000, and in Princeton, the "war babies" of 1944 and 1945 are knocking on the door. The phenomenon of ever-accelerating growth calls for a more intensive program, sustained interest on the part of potential sponsors and further development of such overtaxed facilities as the Pahaquarra Scout Reservation.

For taking time to help start the next generation on the way to adult responsibilities; for reversing the process and doing the "good turn" traditionally associated with Scouting; for furnishing in a year of crisis the kind of leadership needed by a truly American youth movement; these Princetonians are TOWN TOPICS' nominees for

Topics of the Town
Petitions Ready. Step number two in the campaign to consolidate Princeton borough and township is scheduled to be taken next week with presentation to the town's two governing bodies of the petitions requesting formation of a Joint Consolidation Committee. The minimum quota of 20% of the registered voters of each municipality is expected to have signed the petitions
by this weekend.
Steps to follow, under New Jersey
law, will be creation of the six-man committee, three to be named by the borough council and three by the township committee. It will be the task of this group, with the aid of technicians in municipal government such as those on the staff of Princeton Surveys, to prepare a plan governing the orderly conversion of the two areas into a single municipality.
Before a referendum is set, at least two public hearings on the plan must be held. Majority approval from the voters in each municipality must then follow to effect consolidation. Since state law also sets a timetable for presentation of the plan and the scheduling of the hearings, there was still a good possibility that the question will be answered at the next general election on November 3.

Tax Picture. Borough taxes will be approximately eight cents higher per hundred dollars of assessed valuation in 1953. Despite increases of ten points in each of the school and county rates, a major saving has been effected in the rate for borough purposes. This is currently nine points lower than last year
and when credit for bank stock
taxes accruing to the municipality is received, the local rate will be at least 12 points lower. The 1952 rate was 4.64 and while the new rate is currently estimated at 4.75, it is expected to be set finally at 4.72.
The decrease is made possible by a combination of appropriation of $70,000 from surplus funds; some $317,000 more in rateables; and a net jump of $17,000 in revenues.
Included in the latter figure are an additional $5,000 in parking meter receipts; $7,000 more in state gross receipts and franchise taxes, as well as an additional $8,900 in payments
from the township.
The latter figure consists of $500
more for use of the short-wave police radio system operated by the borough; $600 more for fire protection afforded the township; and $7,800 for a return to the library service extended from borough to township.

advice about keeping well

"THE MAN who thinks to conserve his health by uselessness and ease does not differ from him who guards his eyes by not seeing, and his voice by not speaking. . . .
Least of all is it to be assumed that laziness is healthful, if it destroys what health aims at; and it is not true that inactive people are more healthy."
This excerpt from Plutarch's essay Advice About Keeping Well, written over 2,000 years ago, might have been written yesterday. Had medicine and pharmacy been as well developed then as they are today, we are certain he would have stressed the value of a periodic physical examination by a qualified physician. By the same reasoning, it is wise to take your prescription to a registered pharmacist for expert compounding. We are prescription specialists.

The township budget is scheduled for introduction at Monday night's meeting. To date, school and county budgets have resulted in a net decrease of 11 points, and the municipality has a major boost in rateables of some $656,000 more than double that of the borough's.

For township property owners, who were jolted by a 113-point jump in taxes last year, the horizon seemed considerably brighter. Whether there were storm clouds just beyond sight was a solid topic of debate any time the matter was raised throughout the community.

Property Owners Act. Net result of Monday's hearing before the Planning Board on subdivision of the former Marquand estate was a delay in action, pending a conference among adjacent property owners of the 28-acre tract. Their aim is two fold: preservation of the fine old trees on the land and an increase in size of the lots to be sold so they will conform with those long in existence in the neighborhood.

Repurchase of a portion of the estate, specifically a section along its eastern boundary running from Mercer to Stockton Streets, is a possible move by those who would be affected by construction of new housing. Included among the contemplated projects is presentation to the borough of a part of the land for use as a public park.

Edmund S. DeLong of 190 Mercer Street served as spokesman for the adjacent property owners. Others present at Monday's meeting included Mrs. DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stevens, Oliver Spauling, Mrs. John B. Clement, Mrs. Joseph Weber, Frederick Milholland, Mrs. Harold K. Hochschild, Alfred Bueller, Shelby W. Morgan, William F. Wright, Thomas Ward, Edward Rose, Jr. and Robert Serell.

Thorne to Run Again. Political developments of the week:

- Announcement by Freeholder Edward A. Thorne, Nassau Street druggist and chairman of the Mercer County Industrial Commission, that he will seek a third term this year. He had been mentioned as a candidate for both state senator and governor but emphasized his plans to run for freeholder.

- Growing opposition to the proposal that spring primaries be set back from the third Tuesday in April to the second Tuesday in June. The suggestion had been advanced because of the scrambled gubernatorial picture in both parties.

- The possibility, although remote, that two Princeton alumni might face each other as candidates for governor: Charles R. Erdman, Jr., '19 and Charles B. Howell '27.

Zoning Change in Lawrence. Lawrence Township's zoning ordinance has been amended on first reading and a public hearing on the changes will be held in the municipality's town hall on Friday, February 13, at 8. Since the primary intention of the revision is to divide the existing rural district into two parts, residents of Province Line, Carter, Rosedale and Cold Soil Roads and the Princeton Pike will be affected by the amendment.

David B. Sloan, a member of the Lawrence Township Committee, told Town Topics that a change in the minimum lot size is the principal revision contemplated. Under the present ordinance, lots in the rural district must be half an acre on existing roads and a full acre on new roads.

The amendment will require lots of 30,000 square feet (150x200) in Rural District B and 60,000 square feet (200x300) in Rural District A.

VIEDT'S

It's New to Us

News From Lenox. From the potteries in Trenton where Lenox china is made, we have a new pattern called "Westwind." You may see it and buy it at The Cummins Shop, 96 Nassau.

"Westwind" is slightly different from the usual conventional Lenox pattern. Its design, a spray of autumn maple leaves, is off-center, at the left side of the plates. Quite a departure from Lenox' usual centered bouquet.

The leaves are done in pale greens, browns, a touch of rose, a touch of yellow. The design is almost Chinese in the delicacy of its line and color. A pale cream background sets off "Westwind," and a fine gold rim provides a frame.

These dishes are made in coupe shape and that, for the uninitiated, means a shallow plate, only slightly curved, and a cup without a base. Place set consists of 10½-inch dinner plate, salad plate, bread and butter, cup and saucer.

You know Lenox quality, so you have some inkling of the check you'll have to write. But it's lovely dinnerware—suitable to any formal table.

Up from Down Under. You may think your child is pro-teddy-bear, but wait until you show her the koala bears, seven inches high, at The Little Clothes Line, 53 Palmer Square West. The aren't, casually, if she wants something to snuggle, but they have an air of insouciance that's much more appealing than mere cuteness—to a grown-up, anyhow.

Koalas at The Clothes Line are made in Australia out of genuine Wallaby and Kangaroo skin. We thought kangaroos were smooth, like a terrier; these are made of coarse long hairs, rather like a monkey's. Enchanting little beasts.

Make a Valentine present to your daughter: a sun yellow dress with black and white striped bodice, and pigtalled dot that wears exactly the same dress.

Lots of Valentine dress-ups here for infants. We liked a white broad-chest baby dress smocked in red, and a bright red Peter Pan shirt (white, too.) Red Scotties parade across the chest of a white boy's romper; rick-rack edges the round collar and high puff sleeves of a white blouse.

Two-piece boucle suits are in this shop again; sizes one, two and three in blue, tan, pale green and so on.

North of Nassau. If you're planning to make Princeton your winter headquarters, why not fill the gaps in your closet with a visit to The Clothes Line, 53 Palmer Square West. We hadn't been there for some time, but we found those big racks of blouses still there, and still inviting.

Orlon and cotton have been used together to make blouses in airy colors like maize, powder blue or palest beige. With a collarless jacket you could use the one that has a bow at the neck; with a collared jacket, try the shirt-style with round collar that closes at the throat. For $5.95.

On the rack below the blouses—which is, after all, where they belong—are skirts. Many of these are pale plaids whose pastels go with the colors we mentioned in the blouses. For example, a white background supports pale blue and red stripes. Or stripes of powder blue and beige.

All these skirts are a mixture of wool and orlon that will wash, keep pleats, hardly ever need pressing. —Continued on Page 11

Full details of the revised ordinance, together with a map indicating the affected areas, are available at Lawrence Township Hall.

Reader Response. The "open house" held last Saturday to show the National Homes Catalina model at 194 Harrison Street began to draw sight-seers and prospective purchasers a half hour before the 11 o'clock opening. At 5:30, an hour and a half after the showing had been scheduled to end, it was necessary to close the house despite more who wanted to see it.

Full details of the occasion were advertised only in TOWN TOPICS. Mrs. Marjorie Kerr of the Edmund D. Cook Company, which sponsored the showing, estimates that it drew 1,000 residents of the Princeton community.

Tenth President. The election of George R. Cook, 3rd, as president of the Princeton Bank and Trust Company was confirmed last week at the annual meeting of the board of directors.

Mr. Cook became the tenth president of the 118-year old bank, succeeding Harrison M. Thomas who resigned after 18 years as its head. Other elections included that of Oliver Spaulding as vice-president and secretary and of George R. McClelland as assistant trust officer.

Mr. Cook became associated with the bank in 1933. He was made vice-president in 1935 and became executive vice-president two years ago. A member of the class of 1926 at Princeton, he served as a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Navy during the war.

Company L Inspected. Princeton's Company L of the New Jersey National Guard was inspected Monday night at the River Road Armory by Lt. Col. Charles A. McLean, Inspector General of the 50th Armored Division, who was substituting for General Donald McGowan. Members of the company were fully equipped with M1 rifles and carbines and wore winter uniforms and blue infantry scarves.

Col. McLean followed the company inspection by watching close order drill and then attended various classes of instruction being given the company. He later gave the company an critique on its appearance of the evening, indicating that the impression was generally favorable.

First Lt. Stanley L. Donald is company L's commanding officer. Other officers are 1st Lt. John H. Fritz, executive officer; 2nd Lt. Benjamin Bugbee and 2nd Lt. Peter J. Fabian.

Course to Start. The opening class in the course for expectant mothers will be held Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Y.W.C.A., with registration (limited to 30) to be made at 202 Nassau Street now. The course is offered without charge under the auspices of the Y.W.C.A. the Visiting Nurse Association and the Planned Parenthood Committee.

Speakers during the six-week course will include Miss Doris H. Cook, Miss Marcella Farley and Miss Catherine Whyte, all registered nurses; Dr. Edwin D. Rogers, and Dr. Robert Lewis. Advisors for the course are Dr. Lewis, Drs. J. R. Burbridge, Nathaniel Greenfield, J. Leonard Moore, Jeannette Munro, W. E. Pollard and Alfred D. Summers.

Mrs. Thomas Cook has been elected chairman of the Planned Parenthood Committee. Other officers are Mrs. Gerald Breece, vice-chairman, Mrs. John Wheeler, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward D'Arms, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Darrell Johnson, treasurer. Board members named are Mrs. Sherrill Cleland, Mrs. John Helmick, Mrs. Harold Hochschild and Mrs. Norman Williams.

Business Sold. Vincent Ferrara, owner of The Watch Shop at 20 Nassau Street, has been recalled to active military service and has accordingly sold his business to Henry R. Kalms. Mr. Kalms, who has previously been associated with the Watch Shop, is experienced in the repair of all makes of domestic and many foreign watches.

Mr. Ferrara, who will report to Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, will return to his war-time assignment of transport flying. As lieutenant in the AAF, he was a pilot for six years, including 14 months of "flying the hump" in the China-Burma-India theatre. He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters.

Choice of Candidates. Both borough and township will partake in the annual school district elections Tuesday, and voters in both municipalities have a choice among the candidates. Public reaction to the budgets (feeling for a 24-point drop in the township tax rate for school purposes and a 10-point increase in the borough) indicates that both will be approved and that

Tues.) is none other than Tyrone Power. You could write this script yourself, because Hollywood's filmed it a million times without basic change. Duelist, honest gambler, romantic dog—Just Plain Ty, involved in a pre-Civil War Technicolor costume piece, Piper Laurie
and Julia Adams are the ladies.

Above and Beyond (Wed.-Sat.)
deals with a naturally dramatic situation: the key decisions in dropping the first atom bomb and the human conflicts they create.
Robert Taylor plays an Air Force
colonel who trains the bomber crew and decides when and where the bomb is to be dropped. Eleanor Parker is cast as his wife, who cannot be told what is going on for security reasons. Longish, and tinged with soap opera.

THE GARDEN

Outpost in Malaya (Fri. - Sat.)
tells the story of a British rubber plantation besieged by Communists.
Some thrills evolve from the bandit attack and a traditional cobramongoose jungle set-to, and a hit of material drama is also thrown in. Claudette Colbert, Jack Hawkins and a British-native cast.
Good location photography.

Million Dollar Mermaid (Mon-Tues.), repeating here, features
plenty of extravagant Technicolor doings, strung around the "life" of Annette Kellerman, the swimming champion. Esther Williams is the mermaid in question. The fun
comes from gigantic water ballets, diving, etc., and not from the minor little story.

No Time for Flowers (Wed.- Thurs.) is a fairly casual affair, attempting to produce some satiric
comedy at the expense of Communists. The film describes the weakening of a dull little party secretary (Viveca Lindfors) under the blandishments of American life.
Filmed in Austria, it generates a certain amount of Continental charm.

thinking will vary only on those to be elected to the board.

The League of Women Voters
has prepared biographical information on each Princeton resident on the ballot, as well as a record of the answer given to the question:
"What is your principal reason for wishing to serve on the board of education?" A summary of the material compiled on each candidate (which will be distributed throughout the community on Saturday by Princeton Boy Scouts) is presented herewith:

Borough candidates for three-
year terms, three to be elected:

HENRY ABRAMS, 44 Armour Road,
a practicing physician (ophthalmologist) and a resident for 19 years;
educated at Temple University,
University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Medicine and Wills Eye Hospital. Father of two preschool children.

"I wish to serve on the Board of Education because it would be an expression of the highest type of community service which I could render. I feel that I am able to devote the time, energy and thought necessary to maintain and advance the excellent standards of the present school board."

JOHN J. CONROY, 182 Prospect Avenue, director of Physical Education at Princeton University and a Princeton resident since 1941. He holds degrees from the University of New Hampshire and a Doctor of Education degree from Columbia.
Father of two children in the borough public schools.

"In the field of public service,
no undertaking offers a greater possibility for critical responsibility and challenging opportunity than school-board membership.
Since my entire training and occupation for the past twenty years has been in the field of education,
I feel qualified to accept this challenge with confidence."

MATTHEW B. MAXWELL, 37 William Street, attended the borough public schools, Hun School and Rutgers University. A Princetonian
for 41 years, he has two children in the borough schools and is head of the University's Plumbing, Tinning and Roofing Department.

"My principal reason is purely a wish to be of service to my community inspired by my having two children enrolled in Princeton Borough Schools."

BRYAN V. MOORE, 30 Quarry
Street, prepared in borough schools for Lincoln University. He also holds a degree from Rutgers Law School. An attorney who is a lifelong resident of Princeton, he is the only incumbent in the borough seeking re-election.

"I wish to serve on the Board of Education because of a desire to be of service to the community in its civic functions, welfare and betterment."

MRS. ESTHER H. ROBERTS, 74 Mercer Street, wife of the Dean of Princeton Theological Seminary, is a graduate of the University of Missouri, the Boston School of Occupational Therapy and studied at Stanford and U.C.L.A. A resident for 22 years, she is the mother of one child in the borough schools.

"I should like to serve because of my great interest in our public schools, which was very much increased through my rewarding experience as president of the Borough Elementary Schools Parent-Teacher Association."

MRS. JANE K. SUSSMAN, 149 Westcott Road, wife of the head of the New Jersey Bureau of Veterinary Public Health and mother of two children in the borough schools.
She holds a degree from Western Reserve and a master's degree in Education from Rutgers.

"I want to serve for three reasons: 1) Board action affects my children, and I want them to have the best; 2) Board action affects my pocketbook, and I want a good job done but no waste; 3) I'm exceptionally qualified to serve, being a parent, a taxpayer and a professionally trained educator."

Township candidates for three
year terms, three to be elected:

HENRY CHAUNCEY, 55 Battle
Road, holds degrees from Ohio State and Harvard. President of Educational Testing Service, he has been a resident of the township for seven years and is one of three incumbents seeking re-election. All of his four children either have attended or are enrolled in the township schools.

"My general belief in the vital importance of public education leads to a very specific interest in the township schools, naturally increased by the attendance of my children and the experience of three years on the board."

GEORGE W. CONOVER, 241 Moore Street, attended Princeton High School, Mercersburg and Rider College. He is a partner in the Nassau Motor Company and the father of one preschool age child. Mr. Conover is seeking re-election.

"My interest in running is to try and see that the educational system and standards now set up will be continued, so that every child attending will get the maximum amount of elementary education, which in my opinion, is the most important phase of his entire educational career."

WILLIAM M. KARCH, 115 Jefferson Road, attended Princeton public schools and Rider College. Father of two children who have attended or are currently enrolled in public schools here, he is a former trust officer of the Princeton Bank and Trust Company. Mr. Karch has been a board member since 1929 and clerk since 1931.

"I wish to give the community the benefit of my past experience on the board."

MRS. RUTH KLEINBERG, Woodland Drive, a former laboratory technician and wife of the township health officer, is a graduate of Brooklyn College. A township resident for five years, she is the mother of three children, two in the township school system.

"My wish to serve stems from an academic and parental interest in education and a desire to utilize: 1) my business background in school management; 2) my concern and work in health projects for improving existing standards."

Sports in Princeton

Turning Points Ahead. If Princeton's hockey and basketball teams lose their respective games at Hanover and Cambridge this Saturday, chances will be unpleasantly bright that the Orange and Black winter sports season will be the worst in five or six years. Dartmouth and Harvard will provide the opposition, and neither the Indians' hockey team nor the Crimson quintet is particularly able this season.

The Princeton entries in these two leagues are seeking to move upward after a total lack of success in the week that preceded the examination break. To do so, they must win away from home, never a particularly easy way to hit the come-back trail even when the other guys are no world-beaters. If they lose to these relatively weak teams, however, it will be a sign that real trouble lies ahead.

With Pete and Bill Gall scoring three of the five goals between them, the hockey team had little trouble turning back American International College Tuesday. The score was 5-1 and the Tigers led, 4-0, before yielding one goal late in the last period.

Bill Gall scored twice, brother Pete, Jinx Cleaves and Pete Fairfax once apiece. Best news of the evening was the return of Captain Hank Bothfeld after a three-week illness from a virus that had threatened to keep him off the ice until well after the league season began.

The Tiger court team, which resumed action against Colgate Wednesday night, has not been good offensively in any of its first 11 games this season. It won just two of them—over a mediocre Lafayette outfit and Navy, winning the latter because it was good enough defensively to hold the high-scoring middies down to a point where its attack managed to upset them.

Loss of Dave Sisler apparently meant more to the Tigers than had been realized. The senior who signed to pitch for the Red Sox was not the basketball team's highest scorer by a good margin, but he had consistent ability and was usually at his best when the pressure was greatest. That's a quality no member of the current squad has demonstrated so far this season.

Penn. Columbia and Cornell are locked in a three-way battle for the title, with the Ithacans still setting the pace on a basis of their 4-0 mark. However, Pennsylvania is expected to trip the Red Saturday afternoon despite the fact that the game will be played on the latter's Barton Hall floor. Cornell, coming here next Wednesday night at 8, is likely to fade. Yale, still 1-1 after a split with Penn, can remain a factor in the race for some weeks.

Princeton, too, can make trouble for the leaders but having lost their first two games in the circuit, the Tigers probably have more of a handicap than they can overcome in their efforts to keep the title. After Cornell here, it's Dartmouth at Hanover and then Columbia at New York, keeping the emphasis on games away from home and the pressure that much greater.

FHS Splits. The Little Tigers finally found their second victory of the season when they drubbed a hapless Bound Brook quintet by 71-41 last week. South River put them back on the skids, however, with a 77-51 rout.

Princeton lead all the way against Bound Brook, which has yet to win a game. The 71 points established a season high for FHS and Dick Lunanann posted the best individual total of the campaign with his 24 points. The Jayvee encounter went to Bound Brook by 43-38.

South River ran the local forces into the boards with a second period string of 11 points before FHS could make a shot. The Maroons opened up a 43-23 gap by halftime. Lunanann again was high for Princeton, getting 13 points. The South River seconds also won easily, 52-41.

Tuesday saw the Little Tigers take their third game of the season, turning back Somerville, 48-36, as Larry Fitzgerald set the pace with 18 points. They held a 23-20 margin at half time in the losers' gym and moved out steadily from there. Trenton Catholic will come here this Friday night, while Tuesday will find the Blue and White at North Plainfield.

Hun Nipped. Despite a final quarter surge led by Captain Russ Summers, Hun School failed to catch Trinity School of New York and went down to its sixth defeat in eight starts, by a 36-31 count.

Two set shots in a row by Summers closed the gap to 31-30 with five minutes to play in the game, but the Red and Black could not only a foul shot from there on. Bill Stewart's charges made good on a mere nine shots from the floor during the game. Newark Academy will be the next opponent, this Friday at 3.

MRS. CLAIR LEVINE, Harris Road, who attended the N.Y.U. School of Business Administration, is the mother of two children both of whom attended the township school. She has lived here since 1939.

"I feel I have the time and the ability because of my experience to act constructively on the school board."

MRS. LOUISE N. DARKE, Laurel Road, serving an unexpired term on the board, is unopposed for a one-year term.

"I believe that moderation, common sense and a constant evaluation of 'learning climate' and curriculum are necessary to produce good school policy based on the needs of the individual child. As a citizen I wish to take part in the formation of such policy."

Miscellany. Application blanks for the Princeton Cooperative Nursery School may be obtained from the school secretary, Mrs. Lankford Bolling, 66½ Witherspoon Street (tel. 3690-J). Children who will attend next fall must be at least 3 on October 1 and not more than 4½. The deadline for application is March 15.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, Province Line Road; Mr. and Mrs. Horace McMullen, 38 Alexander Street; daughters to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rosso, 2 West Spruce Street; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pillsbury, 26 Alexander Street; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norville, 100 Stockton Street; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, 26 Green Street; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Procaccino, 35 Humbert Street.

never sag, never wrinkle. They would probably even mind the baby. Skirts $12.95, blouses $5.95. Other blouses come from the Hill-Day house. We liked best the pure silk with round collar and long sleeves. Classic, time-tested, but never old hat. In the same style, you might prefer a gingham in blue and white pincheck. These are $5.95, the silks $9.95.

From Lupinska's Kitchen. You have probably tried Elly Lupinska's famous frozen cheese blintzes (or should it be blintzen?), and you know how they melt in the mouth almost before they melt in the pan. With a blintz-and-suzette maker in the family we have never sampled the Lupinska product. But we are strongly tempted by the introduction of a chicken suzette, now at home with the blintzes at The Food Mart, 20 Witherspoon.

This suzette is precisely what it sounds like: a thin pancake with chicken filling, four to a package. And versatile, too. You could toss them off quickly on a frying pan set atop a hot plate if you have limited kitchen privileges. Or you could slice them crosswise, heat and serve as hors d'oeuvres. You don't need to thaw them, you know; just throw 'em into a pan.

There is also a blueberry suzette and a cherry one. Miss Lupinska buys these fruits at their peak in the summer-time and does all her preparing and freezing then. This means top flavor and firm fruit.

Three-In-One. "Turn the radio off, maw; the cake's done." Well, it doesn't work quite that way, but a combination of clock, radio and timer could produce some interesting domestic situations. You'll find this—or should we say "these?"—at Tiger Auto, 26 Witherspoon.

The combine is about 7 by 10 inches and it hangs on your kitchen wall like any electric clock. At the base of the box is a little radio, at the top is a clock face and timer. Package small and neat, comes in red or white, costs $39.95.

It seems there aren't enough traffic lights on Nassau, you need one in the back of your car as well. Tiger has real traffic lights for your back window. Step on the brake, the yellow light shows, then the red. Step on the accelerator, the green light glows. Install it yourself after you pay $4.49.

An additional help to the driver behind you would be a reflector tape. This tape is one inch wide, 17 cents per foot. Fasten strips of it on back and front bumpers; get your kids to strip the fenders of their bikes; print your name in strips on your rural mailbox, or your house number on a lawn sign. We think it has a very special use on bikes because nothing is more disconcerting to a night driver than a blacked-out bike waver-ing down the road.

Tiger Auto's new household scale has a table of weights and measures riveted to its front. Now you know how big a peck is. This scale is flat, and it locks so you can pile things on it for storage without disturbing its weighing mechanism. For $6.95.

We saved this to the end: an alarm clock that goes off every morning without being set. Adjust it once, then forget it. Turn it off one morning, it rings the next; turn it off, it rings tomorrow. What we want to know is, what about Sunday?

only Presto makes this amazing offer
because only Presto has Vapor-Steam

Exclusive PRESTO "Vapor-Miser" — automatically converts ordinary tap water into a smooth, strong flow of Vapor-Steam.

Soleplate Heat Indicator — helps prevent scorching or time-wasting under-heat ironing. Gives exact temperature for each fabric.

Quik-Fill-Speedrln Fill-er Cap — no funnel needed, uses ordinary tap water — automatically turns to Vapor-Steam in 90 seconds.

- Vapor-Steam presses without press cloths.

- Dry-irons easier—faster—weighs only 3½ lbs.!
- Fully automatic—uses ordinary tap water!

Cut ironing time in half with the PRESTO VAPOR-STEAM Iron! Try the easy PRESTO way for 30 days. If you don't agree it's the best steam-or-dry iron ever invented, the manufacturer will return your money. Ironing goes smoother, faster; no tiring lifting or twisting with the wrinkle-proof round heel. Presses tailor-perfect, no pressing cloths, irons without sprinkling . . . completely automatic, reaches ironing heat in 90 seconds or less. Uses ordinary tap water—no distilled water needed!

I'll never go back to old-fashioned ironing!
